

Helpful Publications

Texas Election Code

<http://www.statutes.legis.state.tx.us/>

Printed copies are published by Hart Intercivic

512-252-6400

888-223-4278

(Free online. There is a cost for the printed copy)

Texas State Directory

www.txdirectory.com

800-388-8075

Available online and in print

There is a cost for the printed copy or a subscription to the website

Texas Democratic Party Rules

www.txdemocrats.org

512-478-9800

Grassroots Handbook

<http://www.txdemocrats.org/resources/grassroots-handbook/>

Campaigns & Elections Magazine

<http://www.campaignsandelections.com>

(Subscription prices vary)

The Quorum Report

www.quorumreport.com

(Offers online news clips, political analysis, and links to media outlets and other resources. Portions are free, others require a subscription.)

www.amazon.com

Lots of great books on campaign management and running for office

Recommended reading:

Running for Office by Ron Faucheaux

Campaign Boot Camp: Basic Training for Future Leaders by Christine Pelosi

The Political Campaign Desk Reference by Michael McNamara

Running, How to Design and Execute a Winning Political Campaign by Peter Fusco

How to Run for Local Office: A Complete, Step-By-Step Guide that Will Take You Through the Entire Process of Running and Winning a Local Election by Robert J. Thomas

There are many other publications, both online and in print, as well as websites and blogs that can be valuable resources. If you come across a publication that is helpful to your campaign that is not listed, please let us know.